Integrator; May 20, 1961

In a secret ballot the student council, last were strictly verbal. Although Mr. King felt the extend temporary recognition to "rebel" radio he did feel that the meeting reached an agreea station WCCT over the dissenting voice of ment between all parties on the inadvisability an station WNTC, the Clarkson-Potsdam State of programming anything other than quiet study ny radio outlet. The tenure of the recognition will music. Mr. King had no knowledge of WCCT's commence on September 1, 1961, and extend commercial radio broadcasts and other comes-through February 1, 1962, at which time the mercial programs of which he questioned the si-council will again review WCCT's case. Under the decision handed down by the student council, WCCT will be allowed to con-

nis

'O,

ng

an

Si-

In

rs

1t|

d

tinue broadcasting under the same policies that have guided the young station during the past semester. No expansion beyond the dorms, and no advertising will be permitted by the newly recognized radio outlet. However, a substantially free hand has been d-given to WCCT in the area of sports coverhe age; and rebroadcasts from commercial radio station WEAV-FM in Plattsburgh will be al-bel if student council after a hearing lasting four legal and produced a letter from the president n-hours and spread over two succeeding meetings, of the station which gave full permission for was reached as a compromise between WNTC's the use of its signal over the WCCT outlet. es efforts to disband the station and WOCT's efas forts to gain SC recognition and expand indefre initely.

lowed to continue unchanged.

th Broughton (assistant professor of liberal st studies), Mr. George Davis (assistant professor p-of mathematics), and Mr. Robert Sturdevant st (assistant treasurer of the callege). These men a who represented the administration and faculty prepared statement before the council in which attaining of a solution to the radio problem.

u-ment concerning the aims and goals of the new cition to arise which might hurt this station. n-station. These included: A one year trial period in which WCCT, under temporary recognition by the student council, would be allowed to continue to broad-

Coverage for the entire college including fraternity houses, who through the paying for telephone lines necessary to carry WCCT broadcasts into each house (at a cost of about $6 per month per house) could subscribe to the station.

en its service to listeners.

Programming entertainment and information Win a manner patterned after commercial FM g stations. Steadily improving their facilities with the objective of maintaining a technially good e staton.

tt Hall. t financing improvements.

o presentation by naming to the council Mr. Paul erent publications presented different ideas to e Liebenauer, instructor of physics, as the faculty the student body they were not really competr-ladvisor to the station. Upon the request of President Dave Leroy, Mr. King told the council about the meeting between representatives of WCCT and members of the administration which, as WNTC claims, denied the "rebel" station permission to use CCT as part of the station's call letters. Moreover, WNTC claims that that meeting prohibited WCCT from the program- cluded the general discussion. ming of anything other than "music to study by."

Mr. King stated that when WCCT was first formed they sought permission from Mr. Gutman, director of residences, to broadcast closed circuit programs with the theme "music to study by" to students in the dormitories. At this point the permission was granted as the students in the dorms appeared to want this service. Later on though, Mr. King said that he was approached by WNTC with for its audience. A letter addressed to E. visor), and representatives of WCCT. The except for a free hand given to sports coverage.

meeting was informal with no minutes being The council voted in a secret ballot nine to five kept, and any agreements that were reached in favor of adopting the motion.

na-Monday evening at 8:30, voted nine to five to that nothing about the call letters was stressed, legality. "It's my own thought," stated Mr. King "that it would serve a useful purpose if they (WCCT) go back to their original set up."

Ted Perkins, representative of WCCT, informed the council that he did not interpret the meeting in question as an agreement on the mentioned restrictions. He also said that although the letter of "open challenge" sent to WNTC was written on WCCT stationery, it was not authorized by the station itself but rather was sent by an "over emotional" member. He went on further to assure the council that the rebroadcasting of programs via Plattsburgh The final decision, as handed down by the commercial station WEAV-FM was completely

President Leroy then asked the representatives of WCCT to leave the room while the coun-Present at the meeting were four voting cil discussed their case and voted. Before leavss members of the SC advisory council—a group ing, Ted Perkins, on behalf of WCCT requested as of faculty and administrational members of the the student council to vote by secret ballot. The s-college who are required to be there before the request was granted by President Leroy. Ted Perkins then inquired if John Dalphin, a stust student council can legally recognize an organization. They were: Mr. William King (di-dent council representative had the right to vote de rector of student activities) Mr. Bradford since he was also station manager of WNTC. President Leroy said that Dalphin could vote if he chose to. This ended the inquiries, and WCCT's representatives left the room. John Dalphin, on behalf of WNTC read a in the student council took an active part in the he reminded the members of their ethical commitments to WNTC due to the fact that the The meeting began promptly at 6:30 p.m. council financially supports and recgnizes the G-in the activities building with WOCT repre-college outlet. He said that the council is rea-sentative Fred Silver reading a prepared state-sponsible to WNTC and must not allow compe-

Following this a general discussion took place in which the question of the advisability of competition between both radio stations was the major point. Mr. King stated that because of the disadvantage WNTC has with the phone lines which must carry their signal from Snell Hall up to the dorms, and which introduces a hum and low quality signals, it cannot compete fairly with WCCT which does not have this disadvantage. It was brought out by the council that at the previous meeting one of WCCT's engineers said that a device could be built by WNTC to overcome this disadvantage.

As for the question of competition between two campus organizations, Mr. Davis stated The setting up of a small studio in Holcroft that he felt a precedent had been set last year when the student council granted temporary The seeking of advertising as a means of recognition to the Independent Review, a campus publication which competed with the Inte-The representatives of WCCT concluded their grator. Mr. King said that since the two difing with one another. The two different radio stations, however, would be in competition with one another since if a student listened to one station he could not be listening to the other. Representative Corretore pointed out that many sports do at times compete with one another for spectators for two or more games are held simultaneously at different locations. This con-Later, Pete Dunn, treasurer of the student council, in regard to the improvements which WNTC had promised for the coming year, stated that he had for three years been waiting for WNTC to realize their dreams. Pete had worked on the staff of the station and did not see many improvements being made. He said, "We should be looking to see what WNTC can do instead of WCCT." Pete Dunn then proposed to temporarily recognized WCCT and at the same time investigate WNTC. Discussion on this point fola complaint concerning WCCT's competing lowed with Vincent Capazella, student council secretary, finally making a motion to tempor-Parker, station manager at that time for arily recognize WCCT for a period of five WNTC, and written on WCCT stationery, months beginning September 1, 1961, and conwas shown to him and was revealed to be an |tinuing up until February 1, 1962. His motion open challenge to the campus radio outlet. provided for no expansion beyond the dormitor-This led to a meeting between Mr. King, Mr. |ies and no advertizing for the station. In addi-Gutman, Mr. McGill (WNTC's faculty ad- tion, programming was to continue unchanged